

Code of Conduct

(Full code of conduct is below and must be agreed to)

Fox Den Club and any events it hosts, such as Fox Den Con, are put on by a dedicated team of volunteers simply looking to enrich the fandom and provide the club's members with unique and memorable experiences.

This convention is intended to be a safe and welcoming environment for everyone. These rules are in place to maintain the safety and comfort of all attendees. We're all furies and we are all friends, so let's all treat each other with respect and show the outside world that we are an amazing culture to be embraced with open arms.

By purchasing membership to Fox Den Club you agree to abide by these rules, whether you have read them or not. Fox Den Club staff reserves the full right to interpretation of these rules. These rules may be subject to change without notice (though we will try to give notice). Fox Den Club welcomes all parties with an interest in anthropomorphic animals; however, the management reserves the right to deny or revoke the membership of any individual at any time for any reason. Failure to adhere to these rules may result in your membership being revoked without a refund. These rules may be enforced by any staff member and any decisions by directors or chairs are considered final. These rules are not all-inclusive, the rule of not interfering with the operations of the club, events, and venue as well as not disrupting the experience of guests or diminishing the public opinion of the furry fandom as a whole, may be interpreted by staff as deemed necessary.

Last Update: 9/02/2026

Outside of con/banworthy behavior

Any action that causes interference with the club operations, significant discomfort to club members/staff, or affects the club's relationship with the venue, attendees, or the public at large is strictly prohibited and may result in removal from the event/property and/or ban from the current event or future Fox Den Club membership/events. The severity of the action will be solely determined by the club's staff. This includes behavior prior to any event and not just during Fox Den Con (including before opening ceremonies and after closing ceremonies).

Attending Fox Den Club events while not registered or having been banned may be considered trespassing and prosecutable by law.

Venue Policies

The venue(s) for various club events may have rules that differ with those outlined here. Members are expected to follow the rules of the venue in addition to those of the club.

Badge/ID

The Fox Den Club card, as well as any event badge, is provided to you as part of your membership fees but remains the sole property of Fox Den Club. These must be surrendered to staff if requested, if you are asked to leave or are removed from an event, and/or if your membership is revoked. This decision may be appealed to the Security Director. Depending on availability, this may not be doable during an event and their decision is final.

The issued event badge must be visible while at the event for which it was issued. This helps staff easily see that you are indeed a club member and therefore entitled to attend the event. You may be required to provide a government issued ID to enter any spaces designated for adults-only or that may involve alcohol and your face will need to be visible to verify your age/identity.

By accepting your membership card you agree to abide by all Fox Den Club policies and to indemnify and hold harmless Fox Den Club from any claim for personal injuries or any other damages or equity arising out of any individuals activities at Fox Den Club events, even if the injury or damage is caused by negligence by or on the part of Fox Den Club.

Event badges and Club Cards are issued only to one person and may not be shared at any time. If a badge is found to be shared, the badge and membership will be revoked, and the person who was originally issued the badge as well as the person wearing the shared badge will be removed from the event and club. Knowingly providing transportation, housing, or enabling an individual that is banned to attend will result in a permanent ban. By registering for membership in Fox Den Club you agree to allow the club to share your information with other events/organizations if you are banned at Fox Den Club's sole discretion.

Minors

Minors are defined as any member/event attendee under the age of 18.

Minors are allowed to attend all-ages Fox Den Club events such as Fox Den Con. Unless otherwise specified, minors under the age of 16 must be accompanied by a parent or legal guardian at all times.

A minor above the age of 15 may attend the convention without a parent or guardian with a signed and notarized parent/guardian waiver.

Minors under 12 may be able to attend for free at a basic attendee level. Contact the club prior for details. Any additional benefits, such as those provided at higher registration tiers, will incur a cost to be added to the parent/guardian's registration.

Parents/Guardians must be registered as well even if "just supervising." No one other than the minor's parent/guardian will be in any way responsible for a minor and their actions.

Minors will not be permitted into any areas requiring age verification (such as 18+ or 21+) regardless of having a parent/guardian present.

General

Please do not attend any events if you believe yourself to be carrying an infectious disease. This includes, but is not limited to, the flu, cold, covid, or any other upper respiratory infection. Attending while showing symptoms may be cause for expulsion. If you come down with something near enough to not be able to attend an event, please contact the club and we will try to help out in some way.

Unless otherwise specified, Fox Den Club events are considered all-ages and all public areas are expected to be treated as "PG." The convention space will be considered "PG-13" after 8pm.

Some events may be more "PG-13" in content, like stage plays, concerts, etc. Feel free to inquire with Con Ops if unsure if an event will be suitable for a minor.

Exceptions may be made for events marked with an age-specification (such as 18+ or 21+), which will require a government-issued ID to verify age prior to entering.

Public displays of affection should be kept to those appropriate for polite company.

Attendees may not enter the service areas of any venue or event space. This includes, but is not limited to, backstage areas, service elevators, rooftops, emergency exits, and any areas marked "staff only." Exceptions may be made by staff or in the case of emergencies.

All attendees are expected to maintain a level of hygiene that does not interfere with others' ability to enjoy the convention. Attendees in violation may be asked to leave until the issue is resolved.

No items of any kind may be thrown, flown, or dropped from heights for the safety of those around. This includes darts, water pistols, silly string, any other projectile. Lighter-than-air balloons are not allowed in convention space as they may get stuck in ventilation systems.

Sleeping in any public areas of any venue is not allowed.

Play acting, mock fighting, hitting yourself, staged combat, etc. is not allowed within event space without prior staff approval and supervision.

Attendees are required to follow any reasonable instructions when given by a staff member. If you believe an instruction is not reasonable, address your concerns to the Manager of that department. Disputes are escalated as necessary, but the decision of the Directors/Chair is final.

Event spaces are open only to registered club members or visitors being escorted by staff.

Smoking and vaping are NOT PERMITTED in event spaces, hotel rooms, and outside spaces within 25 feet of any entrances. Smoking or vaping may be subject to prosecution, fees, or other repercussions.

Any act of vandalism or deliberate damage to any venue or club property will result in immediate and permanent removal from Fox Den Club. This also includes any interference with venue staff in the performance of their duties.

Merchandise sales may only be performed in designated areas and only by parties who have prior arrangements with the club or venue to conduct business. A business license may be required by the state. It is not the responsibility of Fox Den Club to provide you with any necessary licensing to conduct business.

Club Room, Signs, Room Conduct, and Room Parties

The person named in the room reservation is responsible for anyone staying in the room, visiting the room, or passing through, and any damages that occur. Intentional and/or severe damage to hotel rooms may result in banning from Fox Den club.

Signs may not be posted to walls or doors in venues without prior approval from Fox Den Con staff. If approved, you must use blue or “delicate surface” painter’s tape to help prevent residue being left on the surface, and have your badge name somewhere on the sign. Any damage incurred from signage, regardless of how it was attached, is the sole responsibility of the named renter. Members are expected to remove all signs they put up by the end of the event.

Room parties are allowed but the venue may have quiet-hours. Our current venue policy requires that quiet hours start at 10 pm. If you choose to host guests during quiet times please keep in mind that loudness can strain our relationship with the venue. Keeping doors open may make noise louder outside of your room, keep them open at your own risk. Outside of severe cases, the club or the venue will issue a warning for noise complaints. Disturbing other hotel guests may lead to expulsion from the event and possibly revoking of your Fox Den Club membership. Members hosting are expected to bag all trash and clean up after any hosting events such as room parties. Most hotels will inspect a room at least once per day regardless of “do not disturb” or “do not service” signage, and as a result must be allowed into a room if requested.

Attendees with a room key at Fox Den Con will have a club room available every evening on the second floor starting at 10pm to 2am in room 217. This room will have refreshments, snacks, and will allow you to hang out longer without bothering your neighbors. Alcoholic beverages will be allowed but you may need to present your ID to ensure you are of drinking age. Conduct in this room will be considered “PG-13”. This room will not be open to attendees under the age of 21.

Lost and Found

If you find anything that may be lost, please bring it to Con Ops. If you lost something, please come to Con Ops. If we do not currently have it, you may fill out a form with a thorough description of the item and your contact information; if it is turned in, we will contact you to arrange pickup. Items will not be shipped for free or held indefinitely. Though we may hold them longer, items left may be thrown away, donated, given away, or auctioned for charity after the event in which they were found after a minimum of 30 days.

Dress Code

Collars, leashes, and harnesses may be worn, but persons cannot be led around by them in public areas as this creates a tripping hazard. The same applies for ropes, handcuffs, etc.

Unless otherwise specified, event areas and public spaces are subject to standard public decency standards. No exposure of bare breasts, buttocks, or genitals is allowed in any of these areas. Breasts that are built into fursuits are acceptable if they do not have nipples showing.

Clothing must be kept within the PG/PG-13 rating of the convention. Certain Mature clothing may be worn into 18+ panels or by vendors of 18+ booths, provided it is covered up while in public areas.

Venue policy does not allow fursuits in the pool or hot tubs.

Hateful or provocative clothing is not allowed. This includes arm bands, shirts, fursuits, flags, or any other items at staff discretion.

Realistic prop weapons, dangerous props, or any kind of projectile firing device is not allowed. Exceptions may be made for specific events. If you are unsure about a prop, bring it to Con Ops for staff to inspect.

Excessive gore, blood, or graphic horror is not allowed.

If you are unsure about your outfit or have questions about the dress code, please contact the club prior to wearing or bringing anything that may be against the code of conduct.

Harassment/Assault

Any action that is illegal outside of any club event is still considered illegal at any club event. This includes any form of harassment, assault, battery, stalking, or unwelcome attention. No means no.

Any conduct, dress, or speech that targets, threatens, intimidates, or is otherwise intended to cause distress to others will not be tolerated. Please report any instances of harassment to Security.

If you feel you are in immediate danger, feel free to contact event or venue security. The venue will have security on duty 24/7.

It is the job of neither the club nor venue to solve your interpersonal problems. If you believe there is a legal reason a person should not be at a club event, please see security to present evidence (such as police reports) so we can get law enforcement involved.

If someone asks you to leave them alone, leave them alone. Continuing to bother other members may lead to being banned and removed from events, even over digital platforms.

Do not touch anyone without their consent. If you are not sure about something, ask first.

Weapons

Event attendees may not carry real weapons of any kind in event spaces, regardless of any permits they may have for concealed carry of such weapons. An exception may be made for sworn law enforcement officers but it must be approved by the Security Director prior to the event and/or prior to carrying a weapon in event space. This includes, but is not limited to, firearms, energy weapons, harmful sprays, edged weapons longer than 3.5", and any illegal weapons like sap weapons or knuckles.

Violations may result in intervention from law enforcement and banning from the club/events.

Replicas that can't easily be discerned, at the discretion of staff, will also not be allowed.

Prop weapons must not be able to fire any kind of projectile. If you'd like to carry something that does, such as a dart gun, you may have it "peace-bound" at Con Ops. Even if previously approved, staff may ask that you not carry a prop in event space, in which case you must immediately either return it to your room/vehicle or accompany the staff member to Con Ops for review. The decision of a Director is final.

Animals/Pets

Unless otherwise specified, pets are not permitted in convention space. This includes support animals and therapy animals as they are not considered service animals under the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA).

In accordance with the ADA, recognized Service Animals are permitted. Service animals are defined as dogs that are individually trained to do work or perform tasks for people with disabilities. Attempting to falsely claim an animal as a Service Animal may result in revocation of membership and local law enforcement involvement. If a service animal is seen to cause disruption of any kind, report it to Con Ops immediately.

Outside Food/Drink

Outside food and drink are not allowed in hotel spaces due to their liquor and foodservice licensing. Please do not bring outside food or drink into event spaces. Registered dealers are allowed to bring outside food and drink for consumption at their assigned table. Outside food and drink are allowed in the hotel's club lounge (room 217) or in your own hotel rooms.

Substances

Marijuana is not allowed in event spaces or hotel property.

The sale, distribution, or serving of alcoholic beverages to anyone under 21 is prohibited.

Illegal substances are not allowed at any Fox Den Con event or venue.

Violation may result in legal charges.

Media, Photography, Videography

All journalists and members of the press must acquire a press badge from Con Ops. These persons must be screened and submit their credentials and intent prior to the event. Members of the press may instead be accompanied by a staff member and may not record anything without explicit permission from the escorting staff member. Interviews must also be approved by whoever is being interviewed.

Fox Den Club considers recorded interviews of any type performed in event spaces to be a form of media representation and require an approved club press pass. A press pass is not a substitute for membership and may require escort as determined by club staff. A press pass may be revoked at any time for any reason as determined by a director or chair.

Please do not speak to any members of the press who do not have a press badge as their intentions may be to harm the fandom or club and report them to staff immediately.

Photos and videos may be taken in any event space for personal use. This means they may end up on the internet as well. If you do not wish to be photographed, please notify the photographer immediately. We do ask that you respect the wishes of anyone who asks to not be photographed by not posting pictures/videos of them or blurring them out, though attendees should understand the club cannot reasonably enforce this if taken in event space.

Any commercial use of photos or videos taken in event space must be approved by Fox Den Club.

Fox Den Club staff may take photos at any of our events to document events and highlights in programming. By attending an event you acknowledge your likeness may be used in our marketing, social media, digital platforms, or zines.

Unless otherwise specified, no recording of any kind is permitted of/in any area that is age restricted or in any headless lounge, even for members of the press.

The names Fox Den Club and Fox Den Con and any associated works/logos are trademarks of Fox Den Club and must not be used in any fashion that disparages or dilutes that mark. Members agree to remove from circulation or publication any image or recording that in the sole opinion of Fox Den Club misrepresents or defames its mark.

Payments to Fox Den Club

Fox Den Club accepts most major credit and debit cards and may accept cash at events.

Charge-backs that are made for the sole purpose of avoiding payment, that are made without sufficient cause, or that are made without first attempting to resolve the dispute will result in a permanent ban from the club and all its events and possible legal action.

Please note that Fox Den Club is a 501(c)7 nonprofit organization. Donations and membership dues are generally not deductible from individual income taxes, consult your local tax professional for more information.

Sales, Flyers, Signs, Solicitation

Business cards may only be placed in event space, not in public spaces like bars and hallways. Flyers, signs, and similar items must be approved by club staff prior to placement.

No adult materials may be displayed anywhere minors may be present.

Raffles or drawings are not allowed unless approved by the club.

Music and Dances

Portable speakers are not allowed in convention space. Live musicians must play at a level reasonable enough for those who do not wish to listen to be able to walk away (which may not be doable depending on the venue layout) and may not ask for tips or payments of any kind, including having a tip box present. Generally, we prefer these performances to be played as events such that we may assign you a position on the schedule.

Only handheld glowsticks are permitted in the dances. Poi, glowsticks on strings or poles, or any other props that may be dangerous during a dance event, are not allowed other than in designated areas. If you are unsure where that is, please ask a staff member. By entering that area you agree to accept the liability and danger created by these glowsticks.

Accessibility

Fox Den Club will happily help accommodate reasonable requests to make the event accessible to everyone. We may need some time to implement special accommodations, so please contact us at least a month prior to the event so that we have time to research and find solutions. This may involve the venue or outside sources, so as early as possible is preferred.
